

PRESENTS THE

2010 Ride to Remember

In support of the

Illinois Holocaust Museum & Education
Center Skokie, IL
& the
Jewish Holocaust Centre in Melbourne, Australia

“Remember the Past Transform the Future”

The objective of the JMA annual Ride to Remember is to support the teaching of today's youth to sustain the defining doctrine of all free men and women around the world: that people of all races and religions must be treated equally and without prejudice.

Sixty three years ago six million men, women, and children of the Jewish faith along with millions of other innocent people were murdered in the worst genocide in the history of humankind.

The Holocaust mandates that people of goodwill today must remember the horrors of the past and oppose anti-Semitism, racism and bigotry wherever it surfaces.

As Jews, we have a special responsibility to recognize the moral imperative of teaching young people about the Holocaust and the importance of passing the lessons of tolerance on to future generations.

The JMA'S goal is to fund Holocaust education at local Community Centers, Schools, Museums, Universities and Colleges throughout the World.

With your support we can make an important difference in the lives of the world's future leaders by teaching the lessons of the Holocaust for the benefit of humanity.

The JMA and its supporters have undertaken the mission to work for a future where people of all backgrounds may enjoy a life of equality. This is the task of the Ride to Remember and we invite you to join us in remembering our past and celebrating our future in Skokie, IL.

INTOLERANCE LIES AT THE CORE OF EVIL. NOT THE INTOLERANCE THAT RESULTS FROM ANY THREAT OR DANGER. BUT INTOLERANCE OF ANOTHER BEING WHO DARES TO EXIST. INTOLERANCE WITHOUT CAUSE. IT IS SO DEEP WITHIN US, BECAUSE EVERY HUMAN BEING SECRETLY DESIRES THE ENTIRE UNIVERSE TO HIMSELF. OUR ONLY WAY OUT IS TO LEARN COMPASSION WITHOUT CAUSE. TO CARE FOR EACH OTHER SIMPLE BECAUSE THAT 'OTHER' EXISTS.

RABBI MENACHEM MENDLE

HOLOCAUST MEMORIAL FOUNDATION OF ILLINOIS FIGHTING HATE SINCE 1981

When neo-Nazis threatened to march in Skokie in the late 1970s, Holocaust survivors around the world were shocked. They realized that despite their desire to leave the past behind, they could no longer remain silent. In the wake of these attempted marches, Chicago-area survivors joined together to form the Holocaust Memorial Foundation of Illinois. The group focused on combating hate with education.

Since 1981, the organization has educated school and community groups through its speakers' bureau and existing museum. About 30,000 students visited the original site in Skokie in 2005. The Memorial will serve more than 250,000 annual visitors, reaching a significant portion of the nearly 2.5 million Illinois school children.

The organization is also proud of its efforts to secure the passage of the Holocaust Education Mandate. In 1990, Illinois became the first state to require Holocaust Education in public schools. In 2005, the organization was again influential in the expansion of this mandate, creating the Holocaust and Genocide Education Mandate, which requires Illinois schools to teach about all genocides.

JEWISH HOLOCAUST CENTER MELBOURNE

The Jewish Holocaust Centre was the fulfillment of a vision by Melbourne Holocaust survivors to create a memorial to the millions of Jews who were murdered between 1933 and 1945. The Centre was established under the patronage of Yad Vashem, Jerusalem and from its humble beginnings in 1984, has grown to become an active and internationally recognized institution dedicated to combating racism, hatred and prejudice by fostering tolerance and understanding across the Australian community.

OPPORTUNITY GRANTS

The JMA is pleased to be able to provide opportunity grants to support field trip expenses for qualified schools in Illinois and Melbourne. The program enables the museum to offer subsidies for transportation and admission for students and chaperones. 70% of funds raised will go to Illinois Holocaust Museum and 30% to Holocaust Center Melbourne. Please note donations to Melbourne are non tax deductible.
